

Profile of Dr. Fang Kun

*Associate Chief Physician, Department of Neurology, Huashan Hospital
Director of Quality Management Office, Director of Medical Affairs Department*

Clinical Expertise

Prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of cerebrovascular diseases (“stroke”); management of high-risk stroke populations; diagnosis and treatment of young stroke; diagnosis and treatment of common and frequently-occurring neurological disorders such as headache and dizziness.

Personal Profile

Stroke&VascularNeurology

From 2011 to 2012, he pursued advanced studies as a visiting scholar in the Department of Neurology at the Royal Melbourne Hospital affiliated with the University of Melbourne, Australia, and the Brain Science Research Center at the University of Melbourne. He currently holds several positions, including Secretary of the Shanghai Stroke Prevention and Treatment Center under the Shanghai Stroke Prevention and Treatment Service System, Secretary of the Shanghai Center for Clinical Quality Control of Neurology, and Editorial Reviewer for the official English journal of the China Stroke Association, Stroke & Vascular Neurology.

Honors and Awards

Gold Medal (ranked second) at the 27th Shanghai Outstanding Invention Selection Competition, jointly awarded by the Shanghai Federation of Trade Unions and the Shanghai Intellectual Property Administration, among others; “Outstanding Aid-Xinjiang Expert” awarded by the Party Committee of the Affiliated Traditional Chinese Medicine Hospital of Xinjiang Medical University; “Outstanding Aid-Xinjiang Cadre Talent” awarded by the Party Committee of Xinjiang Medical University and Xinjiang Medical University; and “Advanced Individual in the Fight against the COVID-19 Pandemic” awarded by Fudan University.